PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As many of you know, this is "senior year" for Mrs. Whiteman and myself. We plan to "graduate" next spring. Consequently, we want to make it the best ever year for everyone, including ourselves. Please help!

In this spirit, I welcome you to the 1982-83 year. You can help if you will both add a little extra to whatever you undertake - familiar study programs, new courses, or new activities - and also speak up and out whenever you see a spot where Sweet Briar can be improved. There is always a lot of excitement in the air in September. Good will and good intentions predominate. Let us hold on to these feelings until May.

SWEET BRIAR HISTORICAL SKETCH

Sweet Briar College was founded in the first year of this century by Indiana Fletcher Williams in memory of her only daughter, Daisy, who died in 1884 at the age of sixteen. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Elijah Fletcher, who came to Virginia from Ludlow, Vermont, in the early years of the nineteenth century and taught school in Amherst County. Later he moved to Lynchburg where he owned and published a newspaper, became a civic leader, and amassed large holdings of land as well as a considerable fortune.

At the time of Mrs. Williams' death in 1900, her estate consisted of more than eight thousand acres of land, including the Sweet Briar plantation, and over half a million dollars. Under the terms of her will, the Trustees were directed to incorporate an educational foundation in the state of Virginia, to establish it as a perpetual memorial to her daughter, and to turn over to it all property left to them in trust.

It was Mrs. Williams' desire, according to the following excerpt from her will, that "It shall be the general scope and object of the school to impart to its students such education in sound learning, and such physical, moral, and religious training as shall in the judgment of the Directors best fit them to be useful members of society."

The first Board of Directors determined that the college should be free from denominational control and that it should maintain the highest academic standards, uniting classical and modern ideals of education.

Sweet Briar College opened formally in September, 1906, with fifty-one students, including fifteen day students. Its A.B. degree, granted for the first time in 1910, was soon accepted for graduate work in leading universities of the country.

By 1921, Sweet Briar held membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Association of University Women, and the American Council on Education, and was approved by the Association of American Universities. Sweet Briar is a member of the College Entrance Examination Board, is a contributing member of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens and is affiliated with the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome. Sweet Briar College offers courses leading to teacher certification in the State of Virginia and 29 other states at both the elementary and secondary level. The music department is approved by the National Association of Schools of Music. Its chapter of Phi Beta Kappa is the Theta of Virginia, authorized in 1949.

In May, 1927, a Board of Overseers was established. It consists of the seven Directors and additional members elected by the Directors for four-year terms. The active oversight of the college is in the hands of this larger board whose decisions are submitted to the Board of Directors for ratification. Alumnae representation on the Board of Overseers was instituted in 1934. Through a policy adopted in 1973, each graduating class now elects one of its members to serve a special two-year term on the Board of Overseers.

Sweet Briar's first five presidents were women. Dr. Mary K. Benedict held the office from the opening in 1906 until 1916. Dr. Emilie Watts McVea served from 1916 to 1925, Dr. Meta Glass from 1925 to 1946, Dr. Martha B. Lucas from 1946 to 1950, and Dr. Anne Gary Pannell from 1950 to 1971. Dr. Harold B. Whiteman, Jr., began his administration as sixth president of the college in 1971.

SWEET BRIAR SONG

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, flower fair,
The rose that on your crest you wear
Shall never fade, but always bear
Thy beauty, O Sweet Briar!
Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, thy columns
white
Shine on thy hills a beacon light
Of truth, to burn with radiance bright
Forever, O Sweet Briar!
Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, we sing to thee.
May thy foundations ever be Strong as thy hills, thy purity
That of thy rose, Sweet Briar!

SWEET BRIAR'S MISSION

Sweet Briar is a four-year independent college whose aim is to prepare women to be active, responsible members of society. A foundation in the liberal arts is essential to this end. Study of the liberal arts enhances the development of critical thought, leads to independence, and allows the mature adult to continue to learn long after leaving Sweet Briar.

The College believes that clear thinking and adaptability are best fostered by a broad study of those disciplines that teach one to view one's experience in wider contexts, to appreciate the achievements of the past, to derive satisfaction from the arts, to understand the methods and major theories of science, and to communicate with precision and cogency.

Moreover, the College seeks to provide an environment that encourages physical well-being, moral awareness, sensitivity to others, responsibility for one's actions, and the assumption of leadership and personal initiative — qualities enabling the graduate to enjoy life in humane community.

While recognizing the distinctive qualities of womanhood, the College believes that excellence knows no gender. Sweet Briar remains a women's college in order to devote all its resources to the education of women in the full range of the liberal arts, including those subjects and responsibilities that have all too often been defined as male domains.

The faculty teaches individuals on a human scale. In small classes, students receive the attention that encourages self-confidence and improvement of skills for life and livelihood.

A sound foundation in the liberal arts will benefit the graduate for a lifetime, by providing the adaptability, the communication skills, and the experience in independent problem-solving which are demanded of any woman today. As an independent college, Sweet Briar possesses the freedom to respond appropriately to the many challenges facing higher education in a rapidly changing world.

The Sweet Briar curriculum reflects the conviction that a student should achieve depth in some field of knowledge, and should have a critical appreciation of the ways in which knowledge is gained. An educated person should have an informed acquaintance with (to adapt the language of Dean Henry Rosovsky of Harvard):

- The mathematical and experimental methods entailed in the study of the physical environment, and the major theories and limitations of the natural sciences;
- The main forms of analysis and the historical and quantitative techniques needed for investigating the development and workings of modern society;
- The important scholarly, literary, and artistic achievements of past and present;
- The major religious and philosophical conceptions of man;
- A culture outside the bounds of classical Western culture.

HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System, a workable system of mutual trust which has been incorporated into all aspects of life at Sweet Briar, consists of three principles of honor upon which the community operates. These principles are: the validity of one's word, the honesty of one's work, and respect for the property of others. While allowing students a greater degree of individual responsibility, the Student Government Association rules and Honor System serve to establish a cohesive sense of community living. When a student assumes this responsibility, it is believed that she will recognize the rights of others and maintain consideration for these rights. This system operates for the benefit of the whole and the individual only when each individual accepts her responsibility to the whole. IGNORANCE IS NO EXCUSE.

The Honor System is based on the fundamental belief that harmony in community living is best achieved when it has as its basis honor and mutual trust. The Honor System at Sweet Briar College is constructed so as to uphold these three principles which we believe to be the core of individual and community honor:

1. Integrity of one's word.
2. Respect for the property of others.
3. Honesty in academic work (including preparation of classroom work, papers, laboratory work and notebooks, tests and examinations).

Each student is required, under pledge, to adopt these standards and to uphold them during the duration of her career at Sweet Briar.

After passing the Student Government Association test at the beginning of her first year at Sweet Briar, every student is expected to sign the honor pledge, without reservation, indicating that she will adhere to the principles of the Association as long as she is a member thereof.

EACH TIME A SWEET BRIAR STUDENT SIGNS HER NAME TO ANYTHING SHE ACKNOWLEDGES HER PROMISE TO UPHOLD THE HONOR PLEDGE.

I. Sweet Briar Honor Pledge

I PLEDGE THAT I WILL GUARANTEE THE VALIDITY OF MY WORD, MAINTAIN ABSOLUTE HONESTY IN MY WORK, AND RESPECT THE PROPERTY OF OTHERS. REALIZING THAT THESE STANDARDS ARE AN INTEGRAL PART OF LIFE AT SWEET BRIAR, I HEREBY ASSUME MY OBLIGATION TO UPHOLD THEM. I WILL REPORT MYSELF AND ASK OTHERS TO REPORT THEMSELVES FOR ANY INFRACTION OF THIS PLEDGE.

In order to avoid external controls as much as possible, we depend upon certain means of self-enforced discipline:

1. The student must report herself for any infraction of the Sweet Briar Honor System. If there is cause to think that specific infractions are occurring, judicial representatives, in accordance with judicial procedures, have the power to ascertain whether or not this is true.

2. The student is first of all responsible for her own behavior. If she has reasonable knowledge of a breach of the pledge, she is honor-bound, by her signature, to ask the offender to report herself. If the offender fails to report herself, it is within another student's power to report to the proper Student Government Association officer. Signing the pledge does not commit a student to report an offender, but it does commit her to ask the offender to report herself.

3. Students are reminded that, once a Judicial case has been decided, there is to be no further discussion by those directly or indirectly involved.

Any infraction of the Sweet Briar Rules and Regulations which involves lying, cheating, or stealing is considered a breach of honor.

An honor regulation is one which the student has pledged herself to uphold. The student is honor-bound to report herself and to ask other students to report themselves for infractions of the honor regulations. Such infractions will be considered honor offences and as such will be punished with severity.

Students should realize that every other student has the same obligations to the community in upholding the Honor System. Personal feelings and / or relationships should have no bearing upon fulfilling this responsibility. In maintaining the spirit of an honorable community and of a just judicial system, students must respect the decisions made by the Judicial Committee, a body elected by the students. Breaking this spirit may serve to alienate the individual or create disturbance or uneasiness among the community.

II. Academic Honesty

THE VALIDITY OF THE SWEET BRIAR DEGREE DEPENDS UPON THE INTEGRITY OF THE WORK WHICH IT REPRESENTS. Therefore, principles of academic honesty are an essential part of the Sweet Briar Honor System. In accordance with these principles the following regulations have been established:

A. Examinations and tests

1. All tests and examinations are given under the Honor System. The student's signature signifies that the information given on a test or paper is her own. It is regarded as a guarantee of honest work. (As a reminder to all students, each is required to sign a printed pledge on every examination that she takes. In addition, on every paper and test, each student is required to write "I PLEDGE" in addition to signing her name.)
2. Only those materials needed for the examination may be brought into the examination room. For their own protection students are advised not to bring notebooks into classrooms where tests and examinations are to be held.

B. Papers and plagiarism

1. The presentation of the words or ideas of another as one's own work is plagiarism. The wording used by others in expressing even commonly known facts is private property, and to include it in a paper as though it were one's own, is dishonest. Ideas and facts not generally known and not commonly accepted still bear the personal impress of the men who formulated or discovered them, and it is unfair for the student to present such facts and theories as though they were her own, even if she changes the phrasing their originator used to express them. The student may use another person's work only if due credit is given.
 - a. Credit is given for the words of another by enclosing them in quotation marks or by indenting and single-spacing them.
 - b. Credit is given for the fact or idea of another, or the paraphrase or summary of another's work, by a footnote specifying the source. Acknowledgement must be made even though the student expresses the ideas and facts in words different from the source.
 - c. A footnote must be used to show exact source. A quoted passage may range from a single word, to a phrase, sentence, paragraph, or series of paragraphs.
 - d. Every quotation must be exact. If words or phrases within a quotation are omitted for the sake or brevity, three dots should be used to indicate the omitted portion.
 - e. If such words as pronouns or proper names in a quotation are not clear, an identifying or explanatory word may be inserted by the student. This editorial material must be enclosed in square brackets.
2. Examples of the dishonest use of material follows:
 - a. This is a paragraph from The Rise Of American Civilization by Charles A. and Mary Beard:

When the first Continental Congress assembled in Carpenter's Hall in Philadelphia, it was found that many of the ablest men in America had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some were bold: Gladson of South Carolina was for an immediate attack on General Gage in Boston. Others were cautious: Dickinson of Pennsylvania thought that a respectful petition to the king would restore harmony; Washington, like Cromwell before him, apparently awaited the decree of Providence.

The following is not an exact copy of the original, but it contains some phraseology which was formulated by the Beards and which therefore belongs to them. To hand in as an original paper one containing this paragraph without giving credit to the Beards would be dishonest.

Among the members of the first Continental Congress, which met in Philadelphia in 1774, were some of the most capable men in America. They had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some of the delegates, like Gladson of South Carolina, favored bold, decisive action. Others, like Dickinson of Pennsylvania, were more cautious, believing that a respectful appeal to the king would lead to a solution of their problems. Washington apparently awaited the decree of Providence.

In the following paragraph, none of the wording employed by the Beards remains, but the whole framework of the paragraph, the ideas, and their arrangement, has been retained. The inclusion of this paragraph in a paper as if it were original work would be dishonest.

Many of the wisest men in the colonies were among the delegates of the first Continental Congress. There was a great difference of opinion among these men about what ought to be done concerning the grievances of the colonies. There were those who favored prompt decisive action. Gladson of South Carolina, for instance, advocated attacking the British troops in Boston at once. There were others who believed that a deferential appeal to the king would bring about a redressing of their wrongs. Washington seemed to be content with a policy of watchful waiting for what fate had in store. No wonder that John Adams declared the Congress was part Whig, part Tory, and part mongrel.

The sum of these principles, however, is not that it is impossible to utilize the work of the Beards. The material in this paragraph may be used in several ways. (In the first place, it may be quoted entirely or in part, a footnote being used to refer to the source of the quotation. In the second place, all or part of the paragraph may be used as an indirect quotation.) In indirect quotation the writer does not reproduce exactly the words of his source but presents the ideas in his own words, at the same time acknowledging his indebtedness. Paragraph 3 might be used for instance, after some such introduction as this: "According to Charles A. and Mary R. Beard in The Rise of American Civilization, many of the wisest men in the colonies were. . .etc." Finally, the facts in the paragraph or some of them might be used without borrowing either the phraseology or the organization employed by the Beards, credit being duly given them in a footnote.

- b. The following is quoted in its entirety from Writing Research Papers; A Complete Guide by James Lester:¹
Original Material

Wuthering Heights is the most remarkable novel in English. It is perfect, and perfect in the rarest way: it is the complete bodying forth of an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life. That is to say, the content is strange enough, indeed baffling enough, while the artistic expression of it is flawless.

Student Version A

The most remarkable novel in English is Wuthering Heights. It brings forth an individual apprehension of the nature of man and life; therefore it is perfect in the rarest way. The artistic expression is flawless, but the content is strange, indeed baffling.

This piece of writing is plagiarism in its most deplorable form. The student has simply reversed the order of each sentence, retaining the essential phrasing. He provides no documentation whatever, which implies to the reader that these sentences are entirely his original creation.

Student Version B

Wuthering Heights is a great English novel. It is perfect in the rarest way: it provides an individual apprehension of man's nature. The artistic expression is flawless, although the content is strange and baffling.¹

¹Walter Allen, The English Novel (New York, 1954), p. 223.

¹James Lester, Writing Research Papers: A Complete Guide (Glenview, Illinois, 1967), p. 48-49.

This student's version is also plagiarism, even though he carefully documents the citation. He has obviously copied almost directly from his source, changing only a few words and phrases. His method is neither summary nor paraphrase. This error may be avoided by direct quotation or, preferably, by scholarly paraphrase that may include some direct quotation of any strikingly significant or well-worded ideas.

Student Version C

Walter Allen insists that the "artistic expression" of Wuthering Heights is flawless.¹ Allen admits that the content is strange and even baffling, but he argues that the novel is perfect because it accurately presents "an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life."²

¹Walter Allen, The English Novel (New York, 1954), p. 223.

This version represents a satisfactory handling of the source material. The authority being cited is identified and acknowledged at the outset, the substance of his comment is well expressed in the student's own language, and a key idea in the original, one strikingly worded, is directly quoted, so as to give full credit where the credit is due. The student has been wholly honest to his source, and he has made effective use of the authority for his own purposes.

3. The Judicial Committee suggests that any student who remains unclear about the proper procedure for borrowing and accrediting material should seek the advice of a professor or a member of the Judicial Committee.

ACADEMIC RULINGS

All students are expected to be familiar with the academic regulations and procedures in this section, which consists of excerpts from the Faculty Rulings. Other Faculty Rulings will be found in the catalog of the College. A student who does not understand any Ruling should consult the Dean of the College. Ignorance of the regulations will not be an acceptable excuse for failure to comply with them.

A. Registration, Changes of Program, Schedules

1. a. Preliminary registration of students in courses takes place in the Spring Term at a time designated by the Registrar.
- b. Final registration for the Fall, Winter and Spring Terms takes place on the dates specified in the college calendar. Failure to register on the day and time designated will result in a late registration fee as follows: $25.00 up to five days late; $25.00 plus an additional $5.00 for every week late after that.
- c. The registration of all students must be completed on the dates specified and rooms will not be held for students who do not register unless an acceptable excuse has been presented to the Dean of the College, before the official registration date.
- d. All students are required to attend the Convocation at the opening of the academic year and any other Convocations designated in the college calendar as required.
2. a. Changes of program (add / drop) may be made within the first eight class days of the Fall and Spring Terms and the first three days of the Winter Term.
- b. A student may not enter a course later than the eighth day of the Fall or Spring Term or the third day of the Winter Term. A student who drops a course after the fifteenth class day of the Fall or Spring Terms (in the case of a freshman in her first term, the twentieth day) or the fifth class day of the Winter Term automatically incurs an F in the course. Exceptions may be made by the Dean of the College, at her discretion or on the recommendation of the College Physician. Exceptions shall be reported to the Executive Committee of the Faculty.
- c. A change of program is not valid until the completed form is presented to the Registrar by the student. The option of "potential credit" or pass/fail must be chosen within the add period.

B. Courses of Instruction, Hours and Credits, Requirements for Graduation and Class Standing

1. a. The announcement of courses to be offered shall each year be presented by each department to the Committee on Instruction for its consideration and recommendation to the Faculty which must approve all changes in course offerings.
- b. No change from the catalog announcement of credits or number of hours of meeting may be made without the approval of the Committee on Instruction.
2. a. Permission to audit a course must be obtained from the instructor.
- b. A student must obtain special permission from her faculty adviser and the Dean of the College, in order to carry 6 or more units of academic work.
- c. With the permission of the instructor a student may register for a course on a "potential credit" basis, provided she is registered for at least 4 additional units for credit. The instructor will specify the requirements of the course and the student must meet these requirements as scheduled if she wishes credit. Not later than one week before the end of the classes in the term, the student must notify the instructor and the Registrar's office if she does not wish credit for the course, in which case her course registration will be cancelled.
- d. A student may not carry less than 3 units of academic work. The Dean of the College is empowered to grant exceptions to this ruling. If the reason is one of health, the recommendation of the College Physician is required.

3. a. The credit ratio is the ratio of the total number of quality points to the total number of course units taken, excluding physical education grades which are not counted in computing the credit ratio.

LIBRARY

A. Library Collections and Services

The Sweet Briar College Library has one of the finest collections in this part of Virginia. It includes over 180,000 volumes, some of which are rare or unique, over 5,000 microform holdings and over 800 periodical and newspaper subscriptions. Most of these materials are housed in the Mary Helen Cochran Library consisting of five floors of bookstacks, reading and study areas. The art, art history and music collections are located in the Shallenberger Library in Babcock; the mathematics and science materials are in the Fletcher Library in Guion.

In addition, Sweet Briar has access to library resources locally and across the country. The Library is a member of the Lynchburg Area Library Cooperative which allows students to use the facilities of academic, public and special libraries in the area. The DIALOG information retrieval system provides us access to over 50 million bibliographic citations in over 100 databases. The OCLC system contains over seven million book and non-print citations, and provides a rapid interlibrary loan subsystem.

Some of the special facilities and collections worth noting are:

1. Reference Room

This is the main service center of the Cochran Library where you will find the card catalog, over 2000 reference works including encyclopedias, directories, study guides, bibliographies, handbooks and atlases. National bibliographies are in the staff work area. All of these sources are intended for looking up quick facts or for locating sources of information, so they should be used only in this room. Assistance is available at the reference desk in the lobby.

Seating for 90 in the reference room and adjacent study gallery make this a popular study and research area.

2. Circulation Desk

Books are checked out and returned here, questions are answered, and reserve books are kept behind the desk. New books, notices of events and exhibits are displayed in the lobby near the desk.

3. Book Stacks

Most of the collection is housed on the lower three levels of the Cochran Library. Stack three contains materials in philosophy, psychology and religion. On stack two are the social sciences, language and literature books, and materials on business, and theater arts. Stack one contains the history and biography collections, as well as the Library's periodical and microform holdings.

4. Browsing Room

The Browsing Room on the Main floor contains current reading in both fiction and non-fiction. Comfortable furniture makes the Browsing Room a popular place to relax or study. An audio console is available to play records and tapes.

5. Rare Book Room

Situated at the head of a spiral marble staircase leading to the second floor is a room containing handsome examples of bookmaking, from incunabula to books on the graphic arts and music. Three collections are particularly outstanding: George Meredith, W.H. Auden, and Virginia Woolf.

6. Periodicals

All periodicals in the Cochran Library, both current and retrospective holdings, are on Stack One. Current issues are on wooden shelves along one wall, arranged alphabetically; bound volumes are filed by call number in the older section of the stack. A large portion of our periodical and newspaper holdings are kept in either microfilm or microfiche. These are filed alphabetically by title. Fiche and film readers, as well as two reader/printers, are available for use. Periodicals do not circulate and should be used only on Stack One. If you need help using these materials, the Library Staff should be consulted.

Periodicals in art-music and in mathematics and the sciences are kept in the appropriate departmental libraries. Microforms in mathematics and the sciences are also in the Science Library.

7. Kellogg Library

The Kellogg Library located in room 101 is a small collection of children's literature and reference materials of interest to those in teacher education as well as to neighborhood children. Teaching manuals and current material on education are in Kellogg; historical and general books are in the stacks.

8. Art-Music Library

The art, art history and music collections are located in the Martin C. Shallenberger Library in Babcock. These collections total about 16,000 volumes. There is a separate reference collection and card catalog. ART AND ART HISTORY BOOKS DO NOT CIRCULATE AND MUST BE USED IN THE LIBRARY.

9. Science Library

The Fanny B. Fletcher Library in Guion houses about 16,500 books and journals in the fields on mathematics, biology, physics and chemistry. Most backfiles of journals are on microfilm or microfiche. A Reader/Printer is available to make copies from microforms.

10. Photocopying

A multi-copy, key-operated machine is available at the Circulation Desk where attendants will help you to operate it and collect the total cost of your copies. Copies are ten cents per page. Please bring cash. The copyright law (P.L. 94-553) governs the making of photocopies. Under certain conditions specified in the law, a copy may be made for "private study, scholarship or research," but for no other purpose. Students may not charge the cost of photocopies.

The entire Library Staff is prepared to help students find the material they need for writing papers, preparing for examinations and tests, and for the pure pleasure of recreational reading.

11. Academic Resource Center

The Academic Resource Center (ARC) is located on the second floor of the Cochran Library. Workshops in reading, study and research skills are conducted here; the Assistant Dean has scheduled hours to meet with students with academic problems.

12. Richard C. Rowland Video Archive

This new facility shares space with the Academic Resource Center. A videotape player and monitor are available for student use. Tapes of dramatic presentations, poetry readings, etc. are kept on reserve at the Circulation Desk.

B. Library Policies

1. The borrower is responsible for the prompt and safe return of all books charged out to her name. Any student who does not properly charge out a book or return it promptly is in violation of the Honor Code and is subject to the discipline of the Judicial Committee of the Student Government Association. This rule applies to the

- Main Library as well as to the Art/Music and Science Libraries.
2. The loan period for stack books is 30 days. Renewals are permitted if there are no other requests for the book. The embossed student ID is required without exception in the Main Library, though a legible signature and social security number is sufficient in Art/Music and in Science. Periodicals, reference books and art books do not circulate. Reserve books go out for three hours and many reserves may be charged out overnight. All books must be returned to the Library by the last day of examinations in the spring.
 3. Fines accumulate at the rate of 5¢ a day per book up to the replacement cost of the book. Two postcard notices will be sent, the third notice will be a bill for the replacement cost of the book, plus a five dollar processing fee. If the books are returned within a reasonable time after the third notice, only accumulated fines plus the five dollar processing fee will be assessed. Fines are not charged over vacations and January term, though students will be billed for books not returned by the end of spring term.

Reserve fines are 25¢ per hour for each item and accumulate up to the replacement cost of the item. Overnight reserves are due 1½ hours after opening the next day.

Books which have been lost should be reported immediately; the overdue fine will be suspended from that date until the book is located. If the material is not located by the end of the term, the cost of replacement as well as the five dollar processing fee must be paid in full by the student. If lost books are found the student's money will be refunded, except for the processing fee. Bills for overdue and lost books must be settled at the end of both fall and spring terms.

4. Books and periodicals should be considered as college property for general (not private) use. Many are now irreplaceable and need to be handled with care. Never underline or mark a library book and please protect them against bad weather outside the Library. Report any damage to a book to a librarian at the Circulation Desk.

5. Food or drink must not be brought into any part of the Library. Smoking is permitted in designated rooms only.

The animal that is unidentifiable as to ownership will be sent immediately to the Humane Society of Amherst. The animal whose ownership is identifiable will be kept by the security police for 48 hours prior to its being transported to the Humane Society. This interval should give the student-owner sufficient time to make arrangements for getting the animal off the campus.

2. Attics

Students are not permitted to go to the attics. If luggage is wanted from the attic, the request must be left in writing in the janitor's box before noon of the day it is needed. Keeping one suitcase in your room for late travel plans is recommended.

Under no circumstances is any student allowed to enter the dorm attics unless they are accompanied by a female member of the Halls of Residence staff. Entry into this forbidden area without proper permission is

4. Electric Appliances*

To reduce fire hazard and overloading of electrical circuits, the use of electrical food preparation and ironing appliances is not permitted in dormitory rooms, halls, or parlors. Kitchens and service rooms are provided in the dormitories for those functions. Reasonable use of other electrical appliances which do not present unusual hazard or high electric load are permitted in dormitory rooms. Small portable electric refrigerators not exceeding 4.5 cubic feet in storage volume, 80 pounds in total gross weight, which require less than 240 watts of electricity in normal operation will be permitted in dormitory rooms provided the room resident assumes full and complete responsibility for acquiring, moving, maintaining and/or final removal of the same. The college may not be called upon for crating or shipping these appliances.

No electric appliance may be used in the dormitories under any circumstances unless the appliance as a whole (not just the cord) has been approved by and bears the seal of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. (U.L. Listed).

5. Food Storage

Food not stored in kitchenette or private refrigerators should be kept in tin boxes, in screw-top jars, or other sealed containers.

6. Furniture

Student rooms are furnished with beds, chest-of-drawers, desks, bookcases and chairs. Each student should provide a pillow, towels, sheets, pillow-cases (or subscribe for laundry service for these), blankets, and mattress pad. No furniture is to be removed from any student room. If you have double-decker beds in your room and do not wish to leave stacked, see the Director of Halls of Residence. Beds are NOT to be dismantled or a mattress removed from its bedstead. If beds are dismantled without permission, a $10.00 fine will be imposed. No mirror is to be separated from the dresser. Separating mirrors from dressers will also result in a $10.00 fine. Furniture is not to be removed from public areas.

7. Trunks

Trunks and boxes must be unpacked and tagged for attic storage within five days of the opening of college in the fall.

8. Public Areas

For fire and safety reasons, hallways must be clear at all times. Students must refrain from leaving personal belongings in dormitory halls, bathrooms, maids' closets, and kitchen areas*. In addition to being unattractive and an inconvenience to other residents, these items (dishes, clothing, boxes, etc.) are a hindrance to the housekeeping staff and can be dangerous in an emergency dorm evacuation.

9. Mattress Pad

A mattress pad must be furnished and used by every student beginning her first night in residence.

*Violation of regulation may carry not only a fine but also confiscation of equipment, article, or animal.

10. Rugs

Rugs of any size will be permitted in student rooms. It must be understood that the owner must assume full responsibility for any rug. No help in the installation or removal of rugs may be requested from the college personnel. Since rugs may not be stored at the college over the summer at the end of the year, you are to take your rug home or send it to be cleaned and stored. If sending to the cleaners, roll it, tie it securely and tag it clearly with your name. If you are planning to be away the first term, indicate the date you wish the rug returned.

The privilege of having large rugs was given with the above understanding and is subject to removal if abused.

11. Water Beds and Beer Kegs*

Such equipment is prohibited in student rooms.

12. Summer Storage

a. SWEET BRIAR ASSUMES NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE OR LOSS OF ARTICLES LEFT AT THE COLLEGE TO BE MOVED OR STORED. STUDENTS ARE ADVISED AGAINST LEAVING ARTICLES OF VALUE IN STORAGE.

b. Property without shipping instructions attached, left for one year in a college house by a student after her final departure from college, either through withdrawal or graduation, will be disposed of by the College.

c. To provide improved protection for students' belongings, summer storage is provided in the trunk storage building at the powerhouse complex. All such storage will be at the students' own risk. While the college will take reasonable steps to protect stored property, it specifically disclaims any liability for damage, theft, fire, water or any other cause. The student is responsible for packing and transporting all items to and from the storage building and for being sure that only standard size boxes (of the sizes sold in the Book Shop) are properly and securely packed. If a student needs help transporting a trunk to the storage area, a written request should be placed in the janitors box, located in each dormitory. The storage of bicycles and rugs is not to be included in this facility.

d. i. Articles must be securely packed. All items such as pillows, bed and table lamps, linens, typewriters and books must be packed in a box, tied securely, and tagged with the owner's name and new room assignment. In all cases the stub should be kept by the student as a receipt and for identification in claiming her storage in the fall.

ii. Chair cushions must be firmly tied to the chair. No other articles may be packed in a chair.

iii. All articles that can be reasonably fit in a box must be boxed before they will be accepted for storage.

e. As the College has no moth-proof store-rooms, students are advised to send blankets home or to a laundry or dry cleaner for cleaning and storage.

f. All items placed in storage must remain in the storage building until college reopens in the fall. In the case of a non-returning student, stored items can be shipped collect when the storage facility is opened in the fall. This requires written permission from the Dean of Student Affairs and a written request from the student.

g. Every student is expected to clear her room of rubbish and leave it in order as it was on her arrival in September. A $25.00 refundable room cleaning deposit is charged in September.

h. At the close of the college year each student, except members of the graduating class, must leave Sweet Briar within twenty-four hours after her final examination and must take with her all of her possessions other than those to be stored at the college and those to be shipped. Graduating students may remain in the dormitories until 6 p.m. on Commencement Day. Residence Halls will close for the summer at 6 p.m.

14. Room changes made without approval of the Housing Coordinator will result in a $25.00 fine.

* Violation of regulation may carry not only a fine but also confiscation of equipment, article, or animal.

The following steps will be taken by a security officer regarding unattached dates at Sweet Briar after the closing hour:

- i. Individual, or individuals, are to be informed that they must leave the campus (1st offense only).
- ii. If, after a reasonable period of time, he or they persist in staying, a security officer should approach the subject, or subjects, and state, "Gentlemen, or young man, your right or license to stay on this property has expired. A dormitory key may not be borrowed or used by ANYONE other than the student to whom it is issued. When the Administration of the College deems it necessary to change dormitory locks for security reasons, each student will be charged an additional fee of three dollars for a re-issued key.

E. Resident Coordinator / Resident Counselor

The Resident Coordinator is a Student Affairs professional who is responsible for developing an atmosphere within the residence halls which stimulates personal growth, encourages individual responsibility in decision making, and provides for an acceptance of others. This person strives to reduce the impersonal aspects of campus life through programming, working with the R.A.s and House Presidents, individual and group problem solving, and personal counseling.

The Resident Coordinator lives in an apartment in the residence halls.

In addition to the Resident Coordinators, there are a few members of the faculty or staff who serve as Resident Counselors in the residence halls. The Resident Counselors are available to give counsel on personal, social, or academic problems.

There will be a Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor-on-call who can be reached through the Information Office at any time.

F. Resident Advisor

Each residence hall is staffed by at least one student Resident Advisor who is under the guidance of the Office of Student Affairs. Her main concern is for the student as an individual.

Resident Advisors are trained and expected to listen to other students as peers, offer constructive alternatives if necessary, refer students to others who may be of more assistance, help whenever possible when emergencies arise in the residence halls, and aid in strengthening the residence life at Sweet Briar.

It is our hope that with Resident Coordinators, Resident Counselors, Resident Advisors, and House Presidents to assist her, a student's adjustment to college life will be a healthy and rewarding one.

G. Keys to Student Rooms

A room key will be available for each student during scheduled check-in hours in September. Likewise keys to top dresser drawers and closet doors in Meta Glass are available. A deposit per key will be required. The deposit will be refunded when each key is turned in.

At the end of the college year or at withdrawal, all keys are to be turned in according to instructions provided by the Office of Student Affairs. Failure to turn in your room key will result in loss of your deposit and a fine.

Dresser and closet keys in Meta Glass are to be exchanged, NOT dresser drawers PLEASE.

If you are LOCKED out of your room, you should contact your roommate regarding entry. If she is not on campus, you may telephone your Resident Coordinator or Resident Counselor up to 10 p.m. After that

Publicity Guidelines

1. Off Campus
 - a. Media relations and off-campus publicity relating to Sweet Briar College, its students, faculty, and programs are handled through the Office of Public Relations. This office issues new releases, hometown stories, and feature stories about students and is interested in learning about student activities and accomplishments.

With the exception of engagement and wedding announcements, any material a student wishes to submit to any of the media should be cleared with the Director of Public Relations. If occasion for publicity arises unexpectedly, a student may, if she wishes, identify herself as a Sweet Briar student but should make clear that she is speaking only for herself as an individual.

- b. In case of an automobile accident, a student should give only her name and college address to any reporter or photographer. In the interest of the owner of the car and his / her insurance coverage, it is important that information be given only to police authorities, and that should be factual. Students are advised not to sign any report of the accident or to assume any liability, except at the direction of the police.
2. On Campus

Any reporter, photographer, or distributor of questionnaires who is not a member of the Sweet Briar community must have the permission of the Office of Public Relations to work on campus. The Office of Public Relations must be notified in advance if someone will be working on campus so that preparations can be made and clearances approved to insure cooperations from the members of the community and to protect the College, students, and others from unwanted publicity.

Students are requested to notify the Director of Public Relations if they meet any unauthorized reporters or photographers on the campus.

Fund Raising

Any fund-raising projects, either on or off campus, should be cleared in advance with the Director of Development.

The stipulations regarding publicity and fund-raising are made to prevent conflicts with college-wide fund-raising programs and to promote the best interests of the college community in this area.

Solicitors

No off-campus solicitors are permitted in the dormitories. In case any such person is detected, notify at once the Security Police Officers or the Information Center, giving the location of and a description of the stranger.

Food, Merchandise, and Service Sales

Any group of students, any organization, or individual from on or off campus wishing to sell food, refreshments, merchandise, or services on the campus must secure permission in advance from the Dean of Student Affairs and the Vice President and Treasurer. Off campus stores, organizations, or individuals must confine their activities to the Wailes College Center. There is a fee for the use of a room in this facility. Fee is subject to change at any time.

2. Requests from groups or individuals not normally authorized to use the College's mailing facilities must be addressed, in writing, to the appropriate office (Alumnae Office for Alumnae Records, Development Office for Parent Records, and others) at least three weeks in advance of the planned mailing date.
3. Such requests must be accompanied by copies of all materials to be included in the mailing.
4. Written approval of the contents must be obtained from appropriate members of the Administration and the Director of Public Relations before the mailing can be processed.
5. If permission is granted to use the College's mailing facilities, the individuals or group concerned will pay in full for all services rendered and materials used.
6. Letters or statements must be signed and envelopes must carry the name of an individual to whom replies may be directed.
7. College stationary and envelopes are not to be used.

SOCIAL REGULATIONS

A. Statement of Compliance

Sweet Briar College provides notice of intent to comply with the regulations effectuating Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972 as amended by Public Law 93-568. We intend to adhere to the letter and spirit of the law through a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of sex in all College operations. This policy applies in particular to our education program, to employees therein and to admissions thereto save where excepted under subpart C 86.15 (a). In addition, Sweet Briar College adheres to a policy of non-discrimination on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin with respect to its educational program and activities, employees, financial aid awards and admission.

B. Statement on Discipline

Any student accepting a place at Sweet Briar should know that the College will not tolerate illegal acts or extremes of social behavior which ignore the rights of others or are injurious to the individual, the community, or the College itself.

In any extreme or clearly dangerous situation the judgment of the President suffices to enforce a decision of temporary suspension and removal from the College until a hearing before the appropriate committee can be arranged. This procedure will be accomplished as quickly as possible.

Any student unwilling to acknowledge such authority on the part of the College is advised to withdraw.

The College reserves the right to exclude at any time, following established procedures that protect individual rights, any student whose conduct or academic standing it regards as unacceptable in a community of scholars and students.

C. Drinking Regulations

Consumption of alcoholic beverages at Sweet Briar College, either by students or their guests, shall be controlled by the laws of Virginia and / or Amherst County. The above-mentioned laws make illegal the following:

1. The sale of alcoholic beverages to persons under 21 years of age (beer may be sold and served to those 18 years and older, but "take out" privileges for beer is 19 years of age and older).
2. The falsification of age by persons under 21 in order to purchase alcoholic beverages.
3. The purchase of alcoholic beverages for another person when there is reason to believe that person is under 21.
4. The serving of alcoholic beverages (except beer to those 18 years and over) to any person under 21 whether in a private home, club, party, or other place.
5. The transportation of alcoholic beverages unless containerized in paper bags or cartons which render the identification of the contents unrecognizable.

In addition, any person who serves alcoholic beverages to a minor or, for that matter, to a non-minor may become liable for any resulting accident or injury which occurs. Either criminal or civil liability, or both, may result in such cases if it can be demonstrated that such action was a contributing cause of the accident or injury.

College regulations prohibit consumption of alcoholic beverages in all academic and public areas of the college, by either students or their guests, with the exception of the Boathouse, the Chef's Kitchen, the Picnic Grounds, and other areas officially designated by the Office of Student Affairs. In the Wailes Center purchase or consumption is limited to beer for those 18 years and older. Purchase to "take off" the premises is limited to beer for those 19 years and older. Wine may only be purchased or consumed by those 21 and older. Food and non-alcoholic beverages must be served at any event at which alcoholic beverages are offered at Sweet Briar College. Honor Code Principles apply.

It shall be the responsibility of each member of the Sweet Briar community to know and to comply with all pertinent laws and college regulations and, further, to help prevent any abuses or excesses stemming from the use of alcoholic beverages. In particular, students are reminded of their general responsibility for the safety and welfare of one another, as well as their specific responsibility to the college community for the highest standards of conduct and behavior, not only of themselves but also of their guests.

Any special permission for exceptions to the regulations above must be obtained from the Dean of Student Affairs. It should be noted that, in general, beer may be served, with permission, at college-approved social functions held in public areas. Hallway parties and kegs of beer are prohibited in the dormitories. The beer to be served under these conditions is to be purchased by the student chairman of the party.

D. Statement of Drug Policy of Sweet Briar College

1. According to Virginia State Law, it is illegal to possess or distribute a wide variety of drugs.
2. Police and College Security have the responsibility for law enforcement and may search a student's room if they have evidence that the law is being broken. As a protection for the rights of students, the College has stated, however, that it will not condone such a search unless a proper legal warrant has been obtained.
3. As an educational institution, Sweet Briar is concerned with informing students of the personal and community consequences of the use of drugs and thus with helping them make responsible decisions in this area. Any student who approaches an official of the College seeking help or treatment for a drug problem will be given every possible assistance. In this case, all disclosures by the student will be treated with complete confidentiality and no disciplinary action will be taken. A counselor as well as a peer counseling group are available to counsel students seeking help with drug problems. Also, literature on drugs is on reserve in the Mary Helen Cochran Library.

4. In the event that an incident of drug abuse comes to the attention of the Administration other than by self-report, the following guidelines will determine the course of action to be taken:
 - a. Any student reported to have illegal drugs (including marijuana) on campus will, at the discretion of the Dean of Student Affairs, be subject to a probationary status, will be advised to seek counseling, and / or will be referred to a hearing board for possible disciplinary action, especially in the case of a repeated offense. In the latter instance the board may recommend any one of a range of penalties from the college including expulsion.
 - b. Any student found to be engaging in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs on campus or for use on campus will generally be reported immediately to appropriate civil authorities. In such a case, the Administration will also bring a complaint before an internal hearing board. A guilty verdict would result in a recommendation for expulsion from the College.
 - c. Any nonstudent found to be engaging in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs at Sweet Briar will be reported immediately to civil authorities, and, if applicable, a complaint will be filed with appropriate college authority.
5. Because of the many issues involved, each report of possible drug abuse off campus will be considered in relation to time, place, and circumstances of the instance in question. In the event of such an abuse in which Sweet Briar may be directly or indirectly involved, the Administration reserves the right to file a complaint with the appropriate authority, regardless of parallel legal proceedings.

SECURITY

Sweet Briar College has around-the-clock security coverage. Anyone who needs the assistance of a security officer or who wishes to make a report to campus police should dial 5550. This telephone number is answered at the Information Center when no one is in the Security Office, which is found on the ground floor of Manson Dormitory. The security officers make periodic rounds of the campus and can receive messages by mobile unit from the Information Center.

SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE HEALTH SERVICE

The Sweet Briar College Health Service is dedicated to helping each student learn to assume personal responsibility for her own health and well-being and maintain a state of positive good health.

The Service is staffed by the College Physician (part time), the College Psychiatrist (part time), and five registered nurses. Consulting services in all medical specialties are available in Lynchburg, 14 miles distant from the College. The Amherst County Rescue Squad, a volunteer organization, may be called upon in emergencies and provides prompt transportation to the Emergency Room of Lynchburg General-Marshall Lodge Hospital. The College Physician holds scheduled office hours while the College is in session. In case of emergency outside of the scheduled office hours, the Nurse in charge will inform the Physician and secure instructions as to procedure.

With the exceptions noted below, service for students is provided as a part of the comprehensive college fee and is as follows:

A. Out-patient

1. The College Physician may be consulted at the Harley Student Health Center during the scheduled office hours of 8:30-9:30 a.m. Monday-Friday. Specific office hours of the physician and the nurses are listed in the Directory of Hours on page 8.
2. The College Psychiatrist sees patients by appointment at the Health Center. A student desiring a consultation should telephone the Health Center to make an appointment. The service provided consists of counselling. Intensive therapy is not provided. Consultations are normally limited to 30 minutes. The service is provided on campus by the College without charge. If the student and the Psychiatrist agree that an extended series of consultations will be helpful, arrangements may be made by mutual agreement, with the student or her family paying the usual Psychiatrist's fee.

B. In-patient

In-patient services are provided for students ill enough to need bed care. If confinement in the Health Center seems likely to exceed five days, the student or her family will be advised. The comprehensive fee for resident students covers office visits to the College Physician, consultation with the College Psychiatrist as specified above, and bed care in the Health Center up to five days without extra charge. For each additional day of care in the Health Center, a charge of $5.00 is made.

On a limited out-patient basis, the Health Service makes provision for the employees and faculty of the College. Employees and faculty may consult the College Physician during scheduled office hours only. Children of staff and faculty are seen at the Physician's private office. No house calls can be made and no bed care in the Health Center provided. Since the Health Service is available only when the College is in session, every employee, faculty member, and family member is advised to have a personal physician in the local community. Treatments prescribed by a personal physician may be given at the Health Center while the College is in session. There is no charge for employees of the College. Emergency procedures for employees and their families are handled in the same manner as for students.

For legal reasons the Health Center does not dispense medication except in an extreme emergency. The physician will prescribe medications needed by a student. The prescriptions will be delivered daily at a specified time to the Information Center by a local Amherst pharmacy. Only the person for whom the drug is prescribed will be permitted to pick up the medicine. A charge will be made to the student by the pharmacy. There will be a charge to the students, faculty and employees for injections, dressings, lab work, etc.

The College Physician and the College Psychiatrist serve, in relation to both students and employees and their families, in accordance with the ethical standards of the medical profession. All information received by the College Physician and the College Psychiatrist in the discharge of their professional duties, whether from students or members of the staff or their families, is privileged and confidential and will not be divulged without the consent, given in advance, of the patient unless required by law, or if in the judgment of the College Physician or the College Psychiatrist a serious threat to the welfare of the patient or the community may arise out of the patient's medical problems.

The College Physician and the College Psychiatrist share with the department of Physical Education responsibility for the College's program of health education. There is an accredited course in health education open to all four classes under the department of Physical Education. In addition, the Health Service and the Department of Physical Education jointly undertake to provide information on the problems affecting the physical and mental health of the community. Informational materials in the form of books and pamphlets on sex, drugs, and other matters of health are available in the Infirmary, the Library and some of the residence halls.

Since the Health Service has the responsibility for the medical care of the students, it is urged that all referrals to consulting specialists be arranged through the Health Center. The Health Service assumes no responsibility when students choose to consult outside physicians independently of the Health Center.

In cases of extreme emergencies, the nurse on duty may leave the Health Center and go to the site of the emergency on campus to administer first aid and make an evaluation. A member of the staff will cover the Health Center during that time.

RELIGIOUS LIFE AND SERVICE

Sweet Briar is an independent college without denominational affiliation. Nevertheless, it has always stressed the cultivation of spiritual values as essential to true education.

From its beginning Sweet Briar College has emphasized cooperation among people of faith within and beyond the Christian community. Even before the great modern ecumenical movement gained momentum, ecumenism was practiced at Sweet Briar and continues to be.

The varied religious backgrounds of both faculty members and students enrich the whole life of the campus community. However, the individual's participation in either the academic study of religion or the College worship services is entirely voluntary.

The Sweet Briar Memorial Chapel provides an invitation to worship to all who enter. Completed in 1966, the Chapel was dedicated on April 23, 1967. Its copper-roofed spire rises 125 feet above the surrounding landscape and stands as a focal point of the residential quadrangle at the east end of the campus.

Sunday services are held in the main Chapel. The College Chaplain presides and, during the academic year, guests from several religious traditions are invited to preach. Holy Communion is celebrated weekly. The Roman Catholic Mass is also celebrated there each week by a priest from the Diocesan Campus Ministry, who hears confession and counsels students on Wednesday afternoons as well.

Students serve on the joint faculty-student Church and Chapel Committee which advises the Chaplain and actively supports the religious ministry on campus. This Committee is responsible for the direction and growth of the religious life of the College, arranging college worship services, and distributing the chapel offering to various charitable agencies. The Church and Chapel Committee initiates service projects, conducts Bible Study and spiritual growth groups and provides programs which focus on the development of personal values and increased awareness of community, national and worldwide concerns.

The College Chaplain is available for counseling and assisting student groups to build religious community on campus.

The College Chaplain is the Reverend Myron B. Bloy, Jr.

B. Mother Macke's

Mother Macke's, located in the basement of Reid, is a popular student lounge. Open 24 hours a day to students only, Mother Macke's houses a variety of vending machines where students can purchase snacks and drinks. There is comfortable seating for eating snacks, playing bridge, and just talking. Some dorms are also equipped with vending machines.

The Alumnae Association provides outstanding speakers and programs at the College.

HONORARY ORGANIZATIONS

A. Phi Beta Kappa

In 1949, the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa granted a chapter, Theta of Virginia, to Sweet Briar College. Election to membership depends not only on excellent academic record but on evidence of broad cultural interests, scholarly achievement, and promise of intellectual growth.

The number of seniors elected to Phi Beta Kappa rarely exceeds 10% of the class and may never exceed 15%. A limited number of juniors may be considered for election.

B. Tau Phi/Chung Mungs

Tau Phi is an honorary society consisting of juniors and seniors who have contributed to Sweet Briar through scholarship and service. The twenty members are chosen for their interest in academics, character and leadership. The club promotes intellectual growth of the college by assisting the Lecture's Committee, arranging a tutoring service on campus, and organizing projects to further promote the principles of liberal arts education.

Tau Phi are not always involved in such intellectual activities. They often enter into friendly rivalry with the Chung Mungs, but do manage to get together with this ghostly club for a few events.

The Chung Mungs, an upperclass honorary society, is composed of thirteen outstanding juniors and seniors, known for their friendliness, cheerfulness, enthusiasm and general interest in Sweet Briar. Their activities include weekly sales of goodies in the dorms and sponsoring of the aluminum can recycling campaigns. It is characteristic of this group to constantly seek new areas of activity which will benefit the College; they are always coming to the College with new ideas for new drives.

In the moments not occupied by such worthwhile pursuits the Chung Mungs must deal with the serious and sober-minded Tau Phi's, harassing and ruffling their intellectual demeanor. Whatever these ghostly thirteen do, they continue to remind us of the need of others and prove that giving need not be a sober affair. A familiar and integral element of Sweet Briar life is this fun-loving group who so gaily chant "Glory, glory, I'm a Chung Mung..."

C. Sweet Tones / Earphones

Sixteen girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes compose the Sweet Tones, Sweet Briar's small independent singing group which specializes in interesting arrangements of popular music. Tryouts are held each spring and the following year the group entertains for various social events on campus such as the Bum Chum Inns, Alumnae meetings, Board meetings, and for various organizations in the Lynchburg-Amherst area.

The newest group on campus is also the loudest! They are known as the Earphones.

The tone-deaf, loud-mouthed song lovers keep the campus singing (or clanging) when they rise to the occasion with a song. They are distinguished not only by their voices, but by their earmuffs and kazoots.

They do not try to imitate the Sweet Tones (no one could). They just want the Sweet Tones to remember that not everyone is blessed with a tear-jerking voice.

D. Paint and Patches/ Aints and Asses

Paint and Patches, Sweet Briar's dramatic club, was organized for the purpose of creating and developing an active interest in all branches of drama and to promote a deeper knowledge of the technique of dramatic art.

P & P also attempts to provide entertainment for the entire community and to be of assistance in any theatrical undertaking on campus.

Eligibility for membership in Paint and Patches is determined by interest, achievement, and lots of hard work. The various areas of club activity include, in addition to acting and directing, scenery design, properties, lights, makeup, and costumes, providing many opportunities for membership for those interested in various branches of the theatre.

Aints and Asses, as the name should indicate, is a unique organization on campus. Its members, chosen for their wit and lack of restraint, dress in manner unorthodox and behave in manner even more so.

The Aints and Asses were originally formed to take off on Paint and Patches productions, but now, being masters of comedy, the Asses perform several original skits during the year to entertain the students. When spring arrives, one can see them out in full force, blowing their whistles to keep students from trampling the grass.

E. Q.V./Bum Chums

"Hallelujah, I'm a Bum!" sung gaily, echoes through the halls of Sweet Briar the night of spring step singing as the Bum Chums tap their ten new members. In addition to an interest in furthering good Lynchburg-Amherst area relations with the College, the Bum Chums are chosen for their good spirit, interest, and general participation in the activities of the College.

Throughout their junior year the "notorious ten" serve as useful members of the community. As a service organization, the Bums sponsor the Bloodmobile, the Christmas Bazaar, a foster child, and numerous service projects. Not least among their projects are their famed shows, the Bum Chum Inns. Also, the Bum Chums make a fun-loving effort to harass their rival group, the secret Q.V.'s.

A girl who is chosen to be a Q.V. is not taking on a new job; she is continuing her interest and work for the class. The members of this sophomore honorary society are elected by their classmates in the spring of their freshmen year for the spirit and enthusiasm they have displayed. The Q.V.'s goal, that of spirit and unity, is an intangible and challenging one for each new group to work toward. Their purpose is to promote class spirit and their names are kept secret until Spring Step Singing of their sophomore year.

club's activities include: trips to a German restaurant, films and speakers, picnics, a monthly conversation-game hour, slides and travel lectures by students, Christmas caroling and other holiday celebrations, wine and cheese Stammtisches with students and faculty from VMI and W & L, and a traditional German dinner. There is also a German table in the Dining Commons each week, at which students from beginning to advanced levels hold informal conversations with the department. All interested students are encouraged to participate in the club's activities, in order to create an atmosphere of Gemutlichkeit among the German-speaking community.

This Club has had as its main purpose the exploration of those unusual collections of books and other materials that may be located in libraries in neighboring institutions such as Washington and Lee University, or in the hands of private collectors like faculty, or in centers of historical interest such as Charlottesville and Washington, D.C. The group developed out of a concern of the Friends of the Sweet Briar Library that the rarity of books and artifacts can give pleasure and intellectual stimulation to those who collect and those who appreciate the acquisitive spirit of human nature.

All interested are invited to contact Mr. Jaffe, Library Director, and to join a small group of intellectually curious who want to explore the hidden treasures in the neighboring regions of Sweet Briar. Informality prevails, and the wishes of the members of the Club determine its activities.

I. Recreational Association (RECA)

K. Spanish Club

The Spanish Club enables professors and students who are interested in the culture and language of Spain and Latin America to participate in various informal activities. Activities will include slides and lectures by students who recently studied and travelled abroad, films, Scrabble games in Spanish, holiday celebrations, a trip to Washington, D.C. for sightseeing and a Spanish meal, and a weekly discussion table in the Dining Commons during lunch.

L. Student Guides & Hostesses

Student Guides and Hostesses serve a vital function to the Admission Office in presenting the College to visitors and also in sharing with the Admission Office their impressions of prospective students. The prospective student's visit with the guide and / or hostess is often a determining factor in her reaction to Sweet Briar.

Student Guides show prospective students and other guests around the campus. Each guide volunteers one hour of the week during which she is available to give tours of the campus. A chairwoman, who is appointed by the Admission Office, coordinates the activities of the guides. At the end of the year, ten Guides who have been especially outstanding in giving of themselves and their time are chosen as Honor Guides. Freshmen are eligible to be Guides after the Fall Term. Anyone who is interested in being a volunteer Guide should contact the Admission Office.

Student Hostesses are headed by the Overnight Hostess Chairwoman. Hostesses entertain prospective students who wish to spend an overnight in the dormitory. Those who are interested in being a Hostess may volunteer at house meetings in the early fall. The Chairwoman is responsible for placing the prospective student with a hostess.

The Lectures Committee is chaired by a faculty member and composed of other faculty members and students. This committee asks each class to elect two representatives who will actively participate in the meetings. The students are able to propose lectures and actually be involved in the planning and introduction of these lecturers to the Sweet Briar Campus. This committee also offers an opportunity for the student to work with faculty on a personal basis and to broaden her knowledge of culturally and academically notable persons.

The Lectures Committee investigates and selects lecturers from many proposals received from faculty and other sources throughout the year. All members of this committee have an equal vote.

 4. The counting of ballots shall be done by a subcommittee of the Executive Board, chaired by the Vice-President of the Student Government Association and consisting of the class presidents.
